Jeremiah 31:29–34; John 1:17 Scripture Handout New English Version

Assign each person in the class one or more verses to study.

(Jeremiah 31:29) In those days they shall no longer say: “‘The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children’s teeth are set on edge.’”

(Jeremiah 31:30) But everyone shall die for his own iniquity. Each man who eats sour grapes, his teeth shall be set on edge.

(Jeremiah 31:31) “Behold, the days are coming, declares the LORD, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah,

(Jeremiah 31:32) not like the covenant that I made with their fathers on the day when I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt, my covenant that they broke, though I was their husband, declares the LORD.

(Jeremiah 31:33) For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, declares the LORD: I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts. And I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

(Jeremiah 31:34) And no longer shall each one teach his neighbor and each his brother, saying, ‘Know the LORD,’ for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest, declares the LORD. For I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more.”

(John 1:16) For from his fullness we have all received, grace upon grace.

(John 1:17) For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ.

(John 1:18) No one has ever seen God; the only God, who is at the Father’s side, he has made him known.

For Context, please add John 1:16 and 18 to the lesson.
