

Acts 16:11–15, 40
Scripture Handout New English Version

Assign each person in the class one or more verses to study.

(Acts 16:11) So, setting sail from Troas, we made a direct voyage to Samothrace, and the following day to Neapolis,

(Acts 16:12) and from there to Philippi, which is a leading city of the district of Macedonia and a Roman colony. We remained in this city some days.

(Acts 16:13) And on the Sabbath day we went outside the gate to the riverside, where we supposed there was a place of prayer, and we sat down and spoke to the women who had come together.

(Acts 16:14) One who heard us was a woman named Lydia, from the city of Thyatira, a seller of purple goods, who was a worshiper of God. The Lord opened her heart to pay attention to what was said by Paul.

(Acts 16:15) And after she was baptized, and her household as well, she urged us, saying, “If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come to my house and stay.” And she prevailed upon us.

(Acts 16:40) So they went out of the prison and visited Lydia. And when they had seen the brothers, they encouraged them and departed.
