Ranch Talk - "make things right"

Western Expression

The phrase "make things right" means to correct a mistake, repair harm, or take responsibility after doing something wrong.

The expression fits this chapter because Hank admits the truth, apologizes to Boone, and offers to replace the flour and buy breakfast for every hand on the ranch.

Comprehension Questions

(Write answers to five questions and read them aloud.)

1. Why was Hank so tired when he returned to the ranch?

2. What happened to Hank's horse on the way home?

3. Why did Hank go into the cookhouse?

4. Why did Hank blame Boone at first?

5. What did Hank offer to do to make things right?

Extra Reflection Activity

Chapter 43 shows honesty, responsibility, forgiveness, and making things right after a mistake. Write three actions that can help rebuild trust.

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

Think About It

Hank made a mistake, then made another mistake by blaming Boone. But when he told the truth, apologized, and offered to repair the damage, his conscience was at peace.

Question: Why is telling the truth an important part of rebuilding trust?
